2008-02235/

2007 News Releases

City reminds residents to recycle old phone books

NEWS @ A GLANCE:

The City of Winnipeg reminds residents to recycle their old phone books. Residents with blue box collection can place their phone books in their blue box. Apartment residents should put their phone books in their recycling bins. (for more details, please read the full media release below)

Related Links

* Water and Waste
* News Archives
* Media Centre

WINNIPEG May 04, 2007 - The City of Winnipeg reminds residents to recycle their old phone books. Residents with blue box collection can place their phone books in their blue box. Apartment residents should put their phone books in their recycling bins.

Residents can also put their phone books in the "Paper" bin at any of the six recycling depots in the city. The depots are open 24 hours, 365 days per year and are located at:

- Garden City Shopping Centre - along Kingsbury Avenue
- Southdale Shopping Centre - Fermor Avenue at Lakewood Boulevard
- St. James Civic Centre - Ness Avenue at Guildford Street
- Transcona - Ravelston Avenue at Chrislind Street
- 1539 Waverley Street - at Chevrier Boulevard
- Pan Am Pool - Poseidon Bay at Taylor Avenue

For the Recycling and Garbage Collection Calendar and more information on Apartment and Blue Box Recycling Programs, see the back of the MTS White Pages Phone Book, or visit Winnipeg.ca/waterandwaste/recycle.

Last update: 04.05.2007

* Top of Page